Introduction to 1–2 Chronicles

Purpose and Theme

The purpose of 1–2 Chronicles is to encourage the returning exiles to be faithful to God by remembering God's promises and provisions. The returning exiles needed encouragement to be faithful to the Lord, particularly in regard to the temple and the Levites. They literally had to rebuild everything, faced great opposition, and struggled with faithfulness to God. God made promises to Abraham (1 Chron 16:16; 2 Chron 20:7; 30:6) and David and He will keep them (1 Chron 17). God will be faithful, and so the people must be. When they are faithful, God will bless them. Israel must worship the LORD at the right place and in the right way. God gave them the temple to worship in and the Levites to provide instruction and guidance.

The theme of 1–2 Chronicles is faithfulness to a faithful God

Key Passages: 2 Chronicles 7:14

Summary of 1–2 Chronicles

1 Chronicles compares with 1–2 Samuel, focusing on David. 2 Chronicles compares with 1–2 Kings, but 2 Chronicles only considers the kings of Judah. 1–2 Kings tells Israel, "Our unfaithfulness brought God's judgment," whereas 1–2 Chronicles tells Israel, "Our faithfulness will bring God's blessing."

Chronicles focuses on the kingdom of David, the temple, the heart, demonstrates God's blessing on obedience and punishment of sin, provides encouraging examples of prayer. The primary message of 1–2 Chronicles is that God's people should be faithful to Him because He has been continually faithful to them.

2. The Reign of David, 1 Chronicles 10–29
