Purpose and Theme of Job

The book of Job surveys different beliefs about how a sovereign God exercises His justice in a fallen world.

Theme: God's sovereign justice

Content and Message of Job

1. A righteous man named Job experiences the loss of every material blessing by the hand of Satan, yet does not curse God (1–2).
2. Four friends of Job—Eliphaz, Bildad, Zophar, and Elihu—try to help Job see that he is suffering because he has sinned against God and so must repent. Each time Job responds he insists on his innocence and demands answers from God (3–37).
3. God reproves Job for questioning Him (38:1–42:6).
