

Instructions

- Study the lesson carefully before completing this worksheet.
- Don't just copy the answers from the notes—do your best to answer in your own words
- When applicable, use Scripture in your answers (you can use the Scripture references in the notes)

1. Read the notes, pp. 28–31. Did you read them?
2. Using a dictionary, look up the word “want.”
 - a. How many different ways (meanings, definitions) are there for this word?
 - b. Give a couple of examples with “want” having different meanings.
3. What is the goal in interpreting the Bible (p. 29)?
4. What principle will help you understand what a biblical passage does and does not mean?
5. Does a biblical passage have a different meaning today than when it was written? Explain your answer.
6. How many different interpretations can a biblical passage have?
7. Have some fun with this sentence—what different meanings could you create?

John wired money to his father.

8. Read something in your Bible every day. Write down what you've read—
